Saint Canera, patroness of Irish Sailors, is sitting in a boat with an oil lamp, the symbol of wisdom and virginity, with a monastery on an island in the background where she sought spiritual rest. She was refused entrance to the island but was given Eucharist just before she died. The shamrock speaks to her Irish ancestry.*

XXVIII Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
10 de octubre de 2021

ENFOQUE:

El discipulado requiere valentía.

El llamado de Dios al discipulado fiel promete bendiciones inimaginables y requiere una confianza radical en la providencia de Dios. Al igual que el joven rico, tenemos futuros que preparar. No podemos hacerlo solos, porque es sólo con Dios que todas las cosas son posibles.

LITURGIA DE LA PALABRA

En la primera lectura, el rey Salomón suplica y encuentra sabiduría y se le conceden bendiciones que palidecen solo en comparación con la sabiduría misma. En la segunda lectura, escribe el autor, la palabra de Dios es viva y eficaz, más penetrante que espada de doble filo. En el Evangelio, Jesús tiene un intercambio con un joven de muchas posesiones, que le pregunta qué debe hacer para heredar la vida eterna.

-Esta Reflexión fue tomada de Fe Católica

Octubre es el Mes del Respeto a la Vida

Un proverbio irlandés dice: "En el refugio del otro vive cada uno". En verdad, hemos sido creados para depender unos de otros y caminar juntos en el sufrimiento. Pero cuando familiares o amigos se acercan al final de la vida, puede que no sepamos la mejor manera de darles "refugio". He aquí algunas maneras concretas en que podemos cuidar compasivamente de ellos.

1. Envite a Dios a entrar
2. Escuche
3. Infórmese
4. Sea constante en al compasión
5. Ayúdeles a cerrar sus asuntos
6. Brinde oportunidades para de resolución
7. Anime a recordar lo bueno del pasado
8. Sea una presencia serena
9. Muestre ternura
10. Lleve su transición pacientemente

DIOCESAN NEWS

Pope Francis' October Prayer Intention

May all Christians be missionary disciples.

Fill us with your love O Lord,
and we will sing for joy!

October is Respect Life Month:

Intercession for Life for October 10, 2021:

May God grant us the wisdom and courage to lovingly protect His gift of human life at every stage, in sickness and in health;
We pray to the Lord

Respect Life Month:

An old Irish proverb says, "It is in the shelter of each other that the people live." Indeed, we are created to depend upon one another and walk together in suffering. But when family members or friends approach life's end, we may not know how best to "shelter" them. Here are some concrete ways we can compassionately care for them:

1) Invite God in.
2) Listen
3) Inform yourself
4) Be steadfast in compassion
5) Help them achieve closure
6) Provide opportunities for resolution
7) Reminisce
8) Provide a peaceful presence
9) Show tenderness
10) Bear their transition patiently

Wealth is useless on the day of wrath,
But virtue saves from death.

Exploring the Word of God
28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I — Wisdom 7:7-11

I prayed, and prudence was given me; I pleaded, and the spirit of wisdom came to me.

I preferred her to scepter and throne, and deemed riches nothing in comparison with her, nor did I liken any priceless gem to her; because all gold, in view of her, is a little sand, and before her, silver is to be accounted mire.

Beyond health and comeliness I loved her, and I chose to have her rather than the light, because the splendor of her never yields to sleep. Yet all good things together came to me in her company, and countless riches at her hands.

Reading II — Hebrews 4:12-13

Brothers and sisters: Indeed the word of God is living and effective, sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating even between soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and able to discern reflections and thoughts of the heart.

No creature is concealed from him, but everything is naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must render an account.

There is so much wisdom in the Book of Wisdom. And, in the letter to the Hebrews, too! Yet, during this pandemic, we seem to be adrift! Could it be that we're not "listening" to God talking with us through Scripture? I know that that happens to me! And then, one morning I'll be doing my silent sitting and it will occur to me: "If I just LISTEN, GOD WILL SPEAK TO ME!" And within a few minutes, God does speak—through an incident from the days past or I get a cue to pay more attention to what will happen that afternoon or evening!

Does that ever happen to you?

I was next door a couple of days ago to take a parish bulletin to the neighbor down the street whose little grandson, Riley, "took me" on a tour of our church a couple of weeks ago! There's nothing like seeing something "old" through the eyes of a four year old! AND THAT'S HOW GOD GETS US TO SEE WITH NEW EYES!

I wonder if that's how the author of the letter to the Hebrews got them to see their world differently!

The gift that has come to me in the last months is "Eucharistic" but the theology of the Eucharist does not change a bit! I receive communion at each mass that I attend and also with the homebound parishioners to whom I take communion during the week. These experiences have changed my way of relating to the Eucharist! I've mentioned before WE ARE THE BODY OF CHRIST! But it is hard to take that seriously. Last Thursday I took communion to Naomi Barchak and after we finished, I asked her if she had plans for supper on Friday evening. I told her I'd bring tacos! She was pretty excited (she loves tacos!) Our time together on Friday was very "Eucharistic"—we spoke of our folks in heaven; we spoke of those we love here on earth. I don't think we left anyone out! We both came away from our taco supper quite "well fed"! We were certainly "naked and exposed" to each other as we shared!

And that is the effect of the Eucharist!

And… all good things together came to me in her company, and countless riches at her hands. Naomi has become "eucharist" for me….and I hope that I am "eucharist" for her! That is what is supposed to happen!

If you're not experiencing this, you might want to watch more movies! Loving Leah is quite good on Prime Video!
