XIX Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
9 de agosto de 2020

Saint Canera, patroness of Irish Sailors, is sitting in a boat with an oil lamp, the symbol of wisdom and virginity, with a monastery on an island in the background where she sought spiritual rest. She was refused entrance to the island but was given Eucharist just before she died. The shamrock speaks to her Irish ancestry.

REFLEXIÓN

Dios está siempre presente con nosotros.

Si esperamos estar a la deriva en un mar tormentoso para ver que Dios está presente con nosotros, perderemos la gracia y la bondad que nos rodea actualmente. El amor de Dios está trabajando en nosotros, en cada sacramento; en cada momento de oración; en cada reunión de adoración; en cada acto de bondad. Él está en el más mínimo susurro y en la mano extendida del otro.

Elías escuchó a Dios en un pequeño susurro. Pablo les escribe a los romanos que tiene gran tristeza y continuo dolor en [su] corazón para su propio pueblo. En el Evangelio, Pedro se asusta mientras camina sobre el agua hacia Jesús. Jesús lo sostiene antes de que se hunda.

-Esta Reflexión fue tomada de Fe Católica

La misericordia y la fidelidad se encuentran, la justicia y la paz se besan;
la fidelidad brota de la tierra
y la justicia mira desde el cielo.

Salmo 84, 11-12

Exploring the Word of God from the “Other Side”

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading 1

1 KGS 19:9A, 11-13A

At the mountain of God, Horeb, Elijah came to a cave where he took shelter [translate: “hid out”!]. Then the LORD said to him, “Go outside and stand on the mountain before the LORD; the LORD will be passing by.” A strong and heavy wind was rending the mountains and crushing rocks before the LORD—but the LORD was not in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake—but the LORD was not in the earthquake. After the earthquake there was fire—but the LORD was not in the fire. After the fire there was a tiny whispering sound. When he heard this, Elijah hid his face in his cloak and went and stood at the entrance of the cave.

It’s not that the reading from Paul (the second reading) doesn’t speak with us...but this first reading from First Kings has always been one of my favorites! I’ve always understood it to mean that God’s voice can only be heard when there is no “commotion.”

When I was a child—maybe beginning when I was about 11 years old, I loved going to my grandmother’s. I was ten when she was widowed and for me spending a week or so at “Ga Hart’s” was being in the lap of “luxury”—the luxury of silence and aloneness. Her house was always quiet. There was no TV; she had a radio and sometimes I would listen to The Lone Ranger on the radio...but mostly I simply sat on the screened-in front porch and read books from her attic library. Her house was always quiet...no commotion of any kind! I loved it!

But as I grew up, I became immersed in “commotion”—the commotion of a family with five kids; the commotion of my dad’s career as a “mud-salesman” following the boom and bust of the oil business.

Elijah learned, as he hid in the cave, that God is not in the commotion of life—but in “the tiny whispering sound” which we can only experience as coming from deep within us. These mystical experiences are usually overlooked in the hubbub of life! I had a mystical experience about four years ago when I was at a concert at Unity Church of Joplin. The couple who presented the music was most interesting: the man played the digeridoo, the woman played the crystal bowls. Sometimes they played together; sometimes they played solo. We had been listening for about an hour and a half, when the man started walking around the room with his digeridoo. The audience was completely silent and I began to feel something like a “boulder” begin to break apart in my chest. And then came words I had never said: “Oh, Daddy, I am so sorry that I never forgave you.” Once those words had been “spoken” within me, I felt a new freedom! The silence within me had been brought to life in a completely unexpected way! God spoke to me in that experience!

Mystical experiences bring us to freedom! If we are caught up in “fixing” whatever is “wrong” with our present situation, we will never experience the same kind of exhilaration that led Elijah to his deep need for God whom he heard in the “tiny whispering sound.” And, trust me, God wants us to hear his/her “tiny whisperings”!

We owe it to ourselves to take advantage of mystical experiences! We owe it to our children and grandchildren to teach them “silence”. We owe it to one another to respect each one’s need for silence! Without silence in our lives, frustration overcomes us and we just keep “trying harder.”

IT IS TIME TO TRUST. DON’T TRY HARDER—GOD MIGHT THINK YOU DON’T NEED HER. AND WE DO!!!

STEWARDSHIP

Diocesan Stewardship Message

Elijah recognized the voice of God not in the strong and heavy wind, not in the earthquake, and not in the fire, but in a tiny whispering sound. May we find enough quiet in our clamorous world to hear His voice and discern what He is calling us to be.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

With spiritual communion, Jesus will give us the graces that we need this moment to be faithful to our mission of being witnesses of the Love of God before all men. Let us pray.....

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.
